Gebhardt Award

KEMPA announces...

The 2013 Gebhardt Writing Award for students from KEMPA publication members

Description

The Gebhardt Award is presented in memory of longtime KEMPA instructor Tom Gebhardt, who died in a car accident in the fall of 2000. Gebhardt was a teacher and newspaper adviser at Prospect High School in Mt. Prospect, Illinois. At Summer Workshop, his specialty was teaching writing, and his students produced many excellent columns, reviews, features and opinion pieces.

KEMPA has honored Tom's memory by rewarding the writer of the best piece of writing from Summer Workshop each year. In recent years, when the course offerings at Summer Workshops changed, the KEMPA Board changed the parameters of the award.

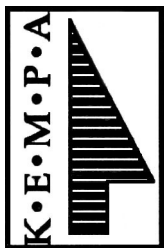

The Gebhardt Award will be presented to a student of a 2012-2013 KEMPA member publication for feature writing that appeared or will appear (yearbook) in the publication in the 2012-2013 school year. KEMPA will accept one entry per student per publication. For example, if both newspaper and yearbook are KEMPA members and a student is on the staff of both publications, the same student may enter a newspaper feature and a yearbook feature.

The Gebhardt Award of $100 and a plaque will be presented at the KEMPA Fall Conference, Oct. 11, 2013.

The application is on the next page.

Postmark Deadline: June 15, 2013
