

Your Year to Grow More with KEMPA

Growing expertise and promoting excellence in journalism, one publication, one journalist, one adviser at a time.

We extend a warm invitation and welcome to be part of the Kettle Moraine Press Association, serving journalism advisers and their students in Wisconsin and Illinois. Our membership form is on the back.

KEMPA will help you make the next school year more – more creative, more connected, more whatever you want it to be.

More Awards

KEMPA recognizes outstanding teachers, friends of scholastic journalism, administrators, members of the press and KEMPA members who have served the profession.

More Training

KEMPA Summer Workshop offers students and teachers four intensive days, learning about writing, photography, design, leadership, including a free day just for advisers.

More Inspiration

Let experienced advisers and journalism professionals inspire you and your students at KEMPA Fall Scholastic Journalism Conference at UW-Whitewater each October.

More Scholarships

Your seniors can apply for a college scholarship based on their work with your KEMPA member publication.

More Connected

KEMPA website has links to journalism resources and full information about all KEMPA events.

More Networking

Winter Advisers Seminar is the perfect time and place to share ideas with other advisers and learn from a nationally known, award-winning journalism adviser.

More Savings

KEMPA members save money with reduced fees for all KEMPA events.

- All-KEMPA
- First
- Second
- Third

More Feedback

A yearly critique of your newspaper, yearbook, magazine, or online publication is included with your membership.

We encourage you to join the Journalism Education Association when you join/renew your KEMPA membership.

Combined membership enhances opportunities for advisers and staffs to work with other scholastic journalists across the country.

JEA membership gives you MORE.

Listserv More than 1,000 journalism advisers ready to help when you need advice

Mentors Trained and experienced journalism advisers ready to help new advisers in Illinois and Wisconsin

Bookstore Latest recommended books and other resources at a discount for members

National Conventions Fall 2013 in Boston and Spring 2014 in San Diego: a MUST-DO for every publication staff

Publications C:JET (Communication: Journalism Education Today) magazine and Student Press Law Center Report delivered right to your mailbox

Certification Both Certified and Master Journalism Educator statuses available through testing, college classes and projects

Advisers Institute Fabulous adviser training from the best instructors every July in Las Vegas

Adviser and Student Awards Recognition for publication success, outstanding advising, student journalism

More Creative

KEMPA brings you Day Workshops tailored to your students' needs, delivered at your school, on your schedule, with just the topics you want.